Highlights

UNESCO World Heritage-listed Jerusalem

The Sea Of Galilee

The Dead Sea

Bethlehem's Manger Square And The Church Of The Nativity

Discover the secrets of Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Nazareth, the Sea of Galilee and Masada on this fascinating introduction to Israel that covers some of the most important historical and biblical sights in the world. A highlight is Jerusalem - not only a holy city for Jews, Christians and Muslims, but a place of pilgrimage for travellers the world over.

Itinerary

Day

Jerusalem

Your trip starts today in Jerusalem. No activities are planned so you may arrive at any time. Rooms are generally available after 1 pm. Your tour guide may make contact with you tonight; otherwise you will see him/her tomorrow morning at the tour briefing, which usually takes place after breakfast.

Jerusalem

We begin our tour of Jerusalem with a panoramic view of the city. We then drive via the Garden of Gethsemane to a gate through which we enter the Old City. We walk to the 'Cardo' in the recently restored Jewish Quarter, which was the old north-south axis in Roman times. We visit the Western (Wailing) Wall, Via Dolorosa (Stations of the Cross) and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. We drive to Bethlehem for a visit at the Church of the Nativity. After lunch (not included) our tour continues with a visit to Yad Vashem (Israel's memorial to the Holocaust) before returning to our point of departure. (B)

Day

Nazareth - Capernaum - Sea of Galilee - Jerusalem

Today we drive to Nazareth for a visit to the Church of the Annunciation and the Church of St. Joseph. We then continue to the Sea of Galilee (which is actually a lake!) via the ruins at Capernaum, Tabgha and the Church of the Multiplication of Loaves and Fishes. Tiberias is a small town of 36,000 people and a very popular stop for holidaymakers, due to its nearby hot springs. Passing Tiberias, we reach the baptismal site on the Jordan River before returning to Jerusalem. (B)

Jerusalem

A free day for further exploration of Jerusalem, or join an optional tour to Masada, the fortress of King Herod and the last stronghold of the Zealots. (B)

Day

Jerusalem

Our trip ends today after breakfast. If you have arranged a private transfer you will be advised of the pick-up time. Please speak to your travel agent or Imaginative Traveller's if you wish to book further accommodation in Jerusalem or Tel Aviv to extend your stay in Israel. (B)

Itinerary Variation

While the information presented here details our planned itinerary, including routes taken, activities included, accommodation and meeting times, please accept that unforeseen changes may occur. We are constantly on the lookout to improve our program and further enhance your experience. Naturally, we will keep you up to date with any last minute amendments to your tour.

About The Imaginative Traveller

Our aim has always been to provide exceptional travel experiences. We believe that adventure travel should be stimulating, and that it should give you an authentic experience of a place. We want our travellers to relish the amazing diversity of countries and cultures the world has to offer. Our focus is on innovation, not imitation.

Obsessed with quality

One of our strengths has been our obsession with quality. We've always believed that our commitment to you doesn't end as soon as you've paid for your holiday. On the contrary, it is just beginning. Whilst most operators simply get a local company to handle the day to day operation of their tours, we do it all ourselves. We have managers for each of our key destinations around the world and all our small groups are escorted by our own leaders. Our local teams include guides, drivers, administration staff and contacts in the local community who help us ensure that our adventures are active and involving.

For comparability, all prices in this dossier are quoted in one currency. We use the US Dollar since that is familiar to most. However, once on tour you will need to pay for all goods and services in the local currency. See your Country Dossier for details of exchange rates.

Trip Grade

Walking

Maybe you're after a ramble through Morocco's Dades Gorge, or a stroll in Malaysia's Cameron Highlands. Or perhaps something more energetic, a hike in South Africa's spectacular Drakensberg Mountains or along a stretch of China's Great Wall. Whatever you want, the same principles apply: keep it simple, and slow it down. Stretching the legs is a great way to discover somewhere, whether a city's downtown or remote countryside. You quickly get into the feel for how life's lived, the local rhythm of where you're travelling. And there's no better way of meeting locals – take a walk through African plains or South American valleys and you'll soon be trying to hurdle language barriers with friendly villagers and farmers.

Culture

Whether you're taking in man's greatest works at places like Petra or Angkor Wat, experiencing grand set-pieces like the Trans-Mongolian Railway or trying your hand at regional specialities like tango in Buenos Aires, getting to grips with local cultures is what travel's all about. A few tips from a guide and a sense of adventure are pretty much all you need. So what are you waiting for? It's time to get the lowdown on high Tibet among Lhasa's magisterial temples; follow up Delhi's eye-popping bustle with a fix of its fiery food; and mix manic markets and Incan masterpieces in Peru.

Fitness

Some people find the ascent of Masada quite arduous. It gets very hot in the summer. There are steps all the way. A decent pair of shoes is recommended. It takes about an hour to reach the top. It is also possible to catch a cable car to the top (optional and at own expense).

Included

- Gecko's expert English-speaking local tour guide.
- Sightseeing (including entrance fees where applicable): Jerusalem including the Garden of Gethsemane, Western (Wailing) Wall, Via Dolorosa (Stations of the Cross), the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and Yad Vashem; Nazareth - Church of the Annunciation and the Church of St. Joseph; ruins at Capernaum; Tabgha; the Church of the Multiplication of Loaves and Fishes; Sea of Galilee; baptismal site on the Jordan River; Jericho; Bethlehem - Manger Square and Church of the Nativity; and Masada.
- Time to relax at the Dead Sea.

Not included

International flights, arrival and departure transfers, visas, airport taxes, additional meals, drinks, optional sightseeing tours, insurance, tips and items of a personal nature.

Meals

4 breakfasts

Accommodation

4 nights Hotel

Single room supplement

Most of our travellers like the thought of travelling with a few like-minded souls. There are NO compulsory single supplements on most tours as we simply arrange twin shared accommodation for you and another tour member of the same sex. But don't worry if that doesn't appeal. We do understand there are times when you just want a bit of privacy and 'me' time so we are more than happy to arrange a private room upon request when you book.

Transport

Private vehicle

The itinerary and supplementary information has been compiled with care and provided in good faith. However it may be subject to change, and does not form part of a contract between the client and The Imaginative Traveller.

Responsible Travel - Travellers' Guidelines

At Imaginative Traveller we love helping our clients experience the beauty and cultures of the destinations we visit. However, hand in hand with this we have always been aware that we have a responsibility to minimise any negative impacts that tourism can bring.

Responsible Travel is twofold. It's about taking people to the places they want to go in a safe and responsible manner but also about respecting and maintaining the natural and often delicate balance of the destination. Economic gain from tourism is often fundamental to a country, but should never be at the expense of its culture or the environment.

Our Aims

It is our aim to provide journeys that have minimal negative and maximum positive impact on the places we visit.

We do not believe that, as visitors, we should impose our own cultures on others; rather that we should experience foreign cultures and appreciate them for what they are.

Whilst it is our aim to show destinations and cultures in a positive light, we do not believe in papering over the cracks or shielding visitors from the realities of life. This does not mean, however, that we condone or endorse certain situations or regimes that may be in place.

Our guidelines are meant not as rigid instructions but rather as suggestions to make our holidays more enjoyable – for everybody. As cultural and environmental sensitivities vary from country to country more specific guidelines can be found in our individual country and trip dossiers.

Travellers' Guidelines

- ✓ Before you depart try to spend some time familiarising yourself with the destination you will be travelling to – their culture and customs. The country dossiers on our website offer detailed information about all the regions we visit. They also include some useful phrases in the local language for you to use on your trip! A few words of the local language can open up many more opportunities for you to interact with the people you will meet.
- ✓ Although it is tempting to give out pens, sweets and money to people begging, and particularly tempting to give to children, we feel that this encourages a begging mentality and has a long-term negative impact on communities. If someone begging earns more than someone in the same community who works this can discourage local employment. If children regularly bring home money it may discourage their parents from sending them to school. It is of course your own personal choice but you could consider giving to registered charities or contributing to our Responsible Travel fund instead. Money donated through our fund to our worldwide projects is matched pound for pound by Imaginative Traveller and used to help local grassroots projects.
- ✓ Always ask permission to photograph local people and respect their decision if they would prefer not to have their picture taken.
- ✓ Respect local dress codes, especially at religious sites. Our tour leaders are always on hand to give you advice about this.
- ✓ In many of the countries we visit you might see examples of animal cruelty (for example dancing bears, performing monkeys and snake charmers). Please do not take photographs of this or offer money as it encourages the activity.
- ✓ Respect the environment you are in. It sounds obvious but do not throw litter, take it with you or use rubbish bins! You may see locals throwing rubbish on the street but do not follow their example!
- ✓ When shopping in countries where haggling is the norm – enjoy it and only pay what you feel is a fair price for the goods you are purchasing. However, remember that the shopkeeper does have to make a living so do stop once you have reached a price you are happy with. Bargaining should be fun but always remember that a small amount can mean much more to the vendor than to you.
- ✓ Endeavor to take home souvenirs made locally; the money you spend can be very important to the local communities. However, do use your common sense and don't buy anything that you think might be made out of endangered animals or plants.

To help keep as much money as possible in the host country - try to eat in locally owned restaurants and order local drinks and produce rather than international brands.

- ✓ In hotels do be conscious of how much water you are using. Many of the areas we visit regularly have shortages; try not to have hour long showers! Don't leave lights, air conditioners or fans on when you leave the room – you wouldn't at home!
- ✓ Respect the environment you are in, especially when in national parks or reserves. Pay attention to rules about keeping on paths, keeping a distance from animals and not removing any of the natural habitat.
- ✓ Relax and immerse yourself in the differences of the culture you are in – you'll be back home in the familiar soon enough (and wishing you were still on holiday!). These cultural differences are part of what makes your experience special.

If you would like to offset the carbon dioxide that will be produced on your flights you can do this on our website (on our Responsible travel page). We work with climatecare, who will reduce the equivalent amount of carbon dioxide that you produce in another part of the World through their emission reduction projects. These projects are low carbon efficient technologies in developing countries and not only serve to reduce emissions but also help to spread the adoption of low carbon technologies and improve the quality of life for local communities. Details of climatecare's projects can be found on their website.

If you would like to contribute to our Worldwide projects, helping communities all over the World, you can also do this on our website or with a sales consultant. Please refer to our responsible travel page on the website for details of our current projects. Any donation you make will be matched £ for £ by Imaginative Traveller (up to a maximum of £1000).

Have a great trip!
